

Live to Inspire – 2015 Role Model Campaign

Program Overview:

The Listuguj Role Model Campaign is designed to highlight Listuguj First Nation youth between the ages of 13 and 30 who serve as role models in our community and are in pursuit of academic achievement.

Nominations:

Applications and 2 reference letters must be received by the posted deadline – FEBRUARY 13, 2015. All other applications will not be processed unless an extension date is approved and announced by the selection committee. A LFNEC member cannot be nominated nor can they nominate an individual as a role model. As well, a parent cannot nominate their child.

Selection Process:

Candidates who have successfully met the criteria set forth (see Criteria Section below) will be required to take part in an interview and will be evaluated based on their (1) ability to overcome personal/academic challenges, (2) personal growth and character, (3) promotion of healthy life-style, (4) personal/academic/athletic achievements, (5) community involvement and volunteerism, (6) respect for self, others, and the environment, and (7) learning/sharing of cultural traditions/knowledge including the Mi'gmaq language.

Interview Committee: The selection committee consists of 2 members (minimum) of the Listuguj First Nation Education Committee (Reinvestment Committee) and 1 member (minimum) of the Enhancement Team. Selection Committee: Consists of members from the LFNEC.

Role Model Criteria:

- Registered member of Listuguj
- Attending an academic institution
- Between the ages of 13-30
- Drug free
- Reside in Listuguj at the time of nomination, with the exception of a candidate attending a Post Secondary Institution elsewhere
- Be able to take part in an interview
